

Thrivent Financial Product, Cost and Compensation Guide

We want to make sure that as members or clients of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans, you have all the information you need about working with us. This guide describes products and services available through Thrivent Financial and our affiliates, the costs associated with purchasing those products and services, and how your financial representative is compensated when you purchase them. Your financial representative may also earn annual or other cash bonuses and non-cash compensation for the sale of any of the products or services listed here.

Thrivent Financial products and services generally fall under four categories: insurance, brokerage, investment advisor and banking. This guide is organized accordingly.

The information provided here is not all-inclusive. Please consult any product prospectuses, statements of additional information or other materials, as well as your financial representative, to learn more about the specific fees, costs, expenses and other information associated with these products and services.

LIFE INSURANCE

Description	What You Pay: Fees, Costs and Expenses	Financial Representative Compensation
Whole Life Insurance A life insurance contract, such as whole life, that provides coverage for the life of the insured individual(s), provides a guaranteed death benefit, guaranteed premium levels and guaranteed cash value as long as the premiums are paid. You can access your cash value with a contract loan. A loan against the contract will reduce the death benefit and may result in a taxable gain upon lapse or surrender.	Premiums when you purchase a whole life insurance contract, which cover the cost of insurance, cost of any optional riders and contract fees. A modal charge, which is a fee charged when payments are made on a schedule other than annually.	A base commission.
Term Life Insurance A life insurance contract that provides coverage for a specified period of time.	Premiums when you purchase a term life insurance contract, which cover costs of insurance, any optional riders and contract fees. A modal charge, which is a fee charged when payments are made on a schedule other than annually.	A base commission.
Universal Life Insurance A flexible premium life insurance contract that provides long-term death benefit coverage and has the potential to accrue accumulated value. Within limits, you are allowed to increase or decrease your coverage or change your premium after the contract is issued. Accumulated value is credited with interest at a current rate set by the insurance company, with a guaranteed minimum rate stated in the contract. Accumulated value is held in Thrivent Financial's General Account and reacts to changes to the General Account's earnings. If more than one death benefit option is available within the contract, depending on the death benefit option selected, accumulated value may affect death benefit. Under current tax law, accumulated value grows taxdeferred. You can access accumulated value by taking a loan or partial surrender. This will affect the amount payable to your beneficiaries. A loan against the contract will reduce the death benefit and may result in a taxable gain upon lapse or surrender.	An expense charge, deducted from each premium you pay when you purchase a universal life insurance contract. A monthly deduction, which is subtracted from the accumulated value and consists of: a cost-of-insurance charge; monthly mortality and expense risk charge; monthly administrative charge; and charges for any additional insurance benefits (riders). A decrease charge, which may apply if: 1) you terminate all or part of the contract early; 2) you decrease the face amount by making death benefit option changes; or 3) the contract lapses during the first 10 years or within 10 years of increasing your coverage. The decrease charge is deducted from your accumulated value.	A base commission. Additional commissions for premiums you pay in excess of a contract's target premiums.

HEALTH INSURANCE

Description	What You Pay: Fees, Costs and Expenses	Financial Representative Compensation
Disability Income Insurance Provides a monthly income stream upon the determination of a long-term disability caused by either an accident or an illness.	Premiums when you purchase a disability insurance policy. Premiums cover cost of insurance, policy fees and cost of any optional riders.	A base commission.
Long-Term Care Insurance Provides a monthly reimbursement for care required following the determination of a long-term physical or cognitive impairment. You can purchase only non-Thrivent Financial long-term care insurance.	Premiums when you purchase a long-term care insurance policy. Premiums cover cost of insurance, policy fees and cost of any optional riders.	A base commission.
Individual Medical or Short-Term Medical Insurance Provides benefits to help pay medical expenses resulting from illness or injury, and may help to pay the cost of preventive care. You can purchase only non-Thrivent Financial individual medical insurance or short-term medical insurance.	Premiums when you purchase an individual medical or short-term medical insurance policy. You may pay a one-time processing fee at the time you apply for a policy.	A base commission.
Medicare Supplement Insurance (or Medigap) Helps fill gaps in protection provided by the Medicare program. You can purchase Thrivent Financial Medicare Supplement insurance in most states, and in those states where it is not available, you can only purchase non-Thrivent Financial Medicare Supplement insurance.	Premiums when you purchase a Medicare Supplement insurance policy.	A base commission.
Medicare Prescription Drug Plan (Part D) Helps pay the cost of prescription drugs for individuals who are eligible for Medicare. You can purchase only a non-Thrivent Financial Medicare Prescription Drug Plan (Part D).	Premiums when you purchase a Medicare Prescription Drug Plan (Part D).	A one-time annual amount each year that you continue your Medicare Prescription Drug Plan (Part D).

FIXED ANNUITIES

Description	What You Pay: Fees, Costs and Expenses	Financial Representative Compensation
Deferred Fixed Annuities An insurance contract that offers a guaranteed minimum fixed rate of interest with a fluctuating current rate of interest. The insurance company selects underlying portfolio investments to support credited rate and interest guarantees. Offers lifetime income options, principal protection features and basic death benefit guarantees. Guarantees are based on the insurance company's continued claims-paying ability, not on portfolio investment performance. Under current tax laws, accumulated value grows tax deferred. Consult with your financial representative for an explanation of a fixed annuity's tax-deferral benefits and disadvantages.	Premiums when you purchase a deferred fixed annuity. A surrender charge, which is a fee for terminating the contract early. The surrender charge declines over time and may begin either upon the contract issue date or premium effective date. Possibly a small contract annual administrative charge. A 10% federal tax penalty may apply if you surrender or take a withdrawal before age 59 ½.	A base commission.
Immediate Fixed Annuities An insurance contract that provides regularly scheduled income payments. Guaranteed income payments are determined based on age, gender and length of time during which you wish to receive payments. The annuity company selects underlying asset portfolio investments to support the guaranteed annuity payment. Guarantees are based on the insurance company's claims-paying ability, not on the portfolio's performance.	Premiums when you purchase an immediate fixed annuity. No front-end sales charges or annual operating fees. A surrender charge, which is a fee for terminating the contract early.	A base commission.

BROKERAGE

Description	What You Pay: Fees, Costs and Expenses	Financial Representative Compensation
Brokerage Account Account that includes investment securities products, such as mutual funds, stocks and bonds. Does not include insurance policies or annuity contracts.	Commissions, sales charges, ticket charges and other fees on certain products purchased and held in account. As a mutual fund shareholder, your proportionate share of a fund's management, 12b-1 and shareholder servicing fees and other charges and expenses.* These fees, charges and expenses vary and are described in the fund's prospectus.	A portion of the commissions, sales charges and other fees. May earn a percentage of the 12b-1 fees.
Mutual Funds A pool of investments in a variety of securities held by an investment company and managed by an investment manager based on, among other things, stated investment objectives. Multiple share classes, such as Class A, Class B, Class C or Class I. Can be held through a brokerage account, a managed account or directly with the mutual fund company. You can purchase both Thrivent and non-Thrivent mutual funds.	If purchased through a brokerage account or directly with the investment company, one of the following fees: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Front-end sales-load charge, a fee typically charged when you purchase Class A shares. • Back-end sales charge, a fee that declines over time (typically with Class B) or that is paid when you sell your shares (typically with Class C). As amount invested increases, you may be eligible for a reduced load (sales charge). This is known as a breakpoint discount. If purchased through an investment advisory managed account, above-noted sales charges do not apply. As a mutual fund shareholder, you also pay periodic operating expenses, such as 12b-1 fees, as discussed in the fund's prospectus, which may affect investment performance.	A portion of the sales load charge. A percentage of sales loads charged on an ongoing basis. May earn a percentage or all of the 12b-1 fees.

*12b-1 fees are fees charged by some mutual funds to cover promotion, distribution, marketing expenses and sometimes compensation to financial representatives. For more information about the fees and charges associated with individual products and services, see the applicable fund prospectus and other disclosure documents.

Description	What You Pay: Fees, Costs and Expenses	Financial Representative Compensation
529 Education Savings Plan State-sponsored program to help finance higher-education expenses. Thrivent Financial currently offers four 529 plans: Nebraska Educational Savings Trust, Bright Directions College Savings Program, Wisconsin's EdVest and Tomorrow's Scholar programs. They include mutual funds as underlying investments. 529 education savings plans are open to residents of any state. Offered through a brokerage arrangement with Thrivent Investment Management Inc. Funds invested in 529 college savings plans have no bank guarantee, are not FDIC-insured, and may lose value. You should investigate whether your state or your beneficiary's state offers a qualified tuition plan for its residents and consider what, if any, potential state income tax or other benefits it offers. Please consult with a tax professional to receive tax analysis of the investments.	Like a mutual fund, either a sales charge at the time of purchase or when you sell the plan. Periodic expenses, which may affect investment performance.	A portion of the sales charge. A percentage of sales charges on an ongoing basis. May earn a percentage or all of the 12b-1 fees.
Immediate Variable Annuities An insurance contract that provides regularly scheduled income payments. You choose sub-accounts in which to invest accumulated value. The performance of the sub-accounts is not guaranteed. Accumulated value fluctuates according to investment performance of these sub-accounts. Investments in sub-accounts are subject to risk and may be worth more or less than the amount contributed. Depending on the death benefit option you select, accumulated value may affect death benefit. Income payments may fluctuate depending upon your investment choices, the performance of those investments, and your assumed investment return (AIR). You choose from the available investment options. You also choose the AIR, or an investment return target. Your AIR determines both your initial annuity income payment and future annuity income payments. When your investment returns are higher than the AIR, your annuity payment increases. When your investment returns are lower than the AIR, your annuity payment decreases.	Premiums when you purchase an immediate variable annuity. No front-end sales charges. Operating expenses, paid indirectly, which may affect net investment performance. These include portfolio expenses and mortality and expense risk fees. A surrender charge, which is a fee for terminating the contract early.	A base commission.

Deferred Variable Annuities An insurance contract with a value that fluctuates with the performance of the underlying securities portfolios. You choose sub-accounts in which to invest accumulated value or a fixed account. The performance of the sub-accounts is not guaranteed. Accumulated value fluctuates according to investment performance of these sub-accounts. Investments in sub-accounts are subject to risk and may be worth more or less than the amount contributed. Depending on the death benefit option you select, accumulated value may affect death benefit. Offers lifetime income options, principal protection features and basic death guarantees. Other options are available at an additional cost. Guarantees are based on insurance company's claims-paying ability, not on performance of securities. Under current tax law, accumulated value grows tax deferred. Consult with your financial representative for information regarding a variable annuity's tax-deferral benefits and disadvantages. For specific tax advice, please consult your tax advisor.	Premiums when you purchase a deferred variable annuity. A surrender charge, which is a fee for terminating the contract early. The surrender charge declines over time and may begin either upon the contract issue date or premium effective date. Operating expenses, paid indirectly, which affect net investment performance. These include portfolio expenses, mortality and expense risk fees, contract administrative charges and rider fees. A 10% federal tax penalty may apply if you surrender or take a withdrawal before age 59½.	A base commission.
Variable Universal Life Insurance A flexible premium life insurance contract that provides long-term death benefit coverage and has the potential to accrue accumulated value. Within limits, you are allowed to increase or decrease your coverage or change your premium after contract is issued. You choose sub-accounts in which to invest accumulated value or a fixed account. The performance of the sub-accounts is not guaranteed. Accumulated value fluctuates according to investment performance of these sub-accounts. Investments in sub-accounts are subject to risk and may be worth more or less than the amount contributed. Depending on the death benefit option you select, accumulated value may affect death benefit. Under current tax law, accumulated value grows tax deferred. You can access accumulated cash value by taking a loan or partial surrender. This will affect the amount payable to your beneficiaries. A loan against the contract will reduce the death benefit and may result in a taxable gain upon lapse or surrender.	An expense charge, deducted from each premium you pay when you purchase a variable universal life insurance contract. A monthly deduction, which is subtracted from the accumulated value and consists of: a cost-of-insurance charge; monthly mortality and expense risk charge; monthly administrative charge; and charges for any additional insurance benefits (riders). A decrease charge, which may apply if: 1) you terminate all or part of the contract early; 2) you decrease the face amount by making death benefit option changes; or 3) the contract lapses during the first 10 years or within 10 years of increasing your coverage. The decrease charge is deducted from your accumulated value. Periodic fees, which may include: surrender charges, portfolio management fees and transfer charges.	A base commission. Additional commissions for premiums you pay in excess of a contract's target premiums.

Investing in a securities product (such as a mutual fund or a variable product) involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. The prospectus contains more complete information on the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of the product, which investors should read and consider carefully before investing.
